Performance Experience

Join the critically acclaimed Mana Quartet this summer for their 11th annual Mana Saxophone Institute, hosted by San José State University. Mana welcomes saxophonists of all ages to participate in this week-long intensive course. During the institute, private instruction will be offered as well as a series of seminars where Mana will share their experience, performance and entrepreneurial skills with participants.

In addition, all participants will have the opportunity to perform in chamber ensembles, saxophone orchestra and solo masterclasses. During the week some of the most important aspects of music making (style, intonation, tone color, musical interpretation) will be thoroughly examined.
